Payment Solutions

Corporate One's payment solutions, on both the deposit and receipt side of processing, position credit unions to effectively compete in today's marketplace. Move and collect money securely with our suite of payment solutions, such as share drafts, ACH, remote deposit capture, wire and vault services, while meeting your members' demands for easy, convenient and cost-effective money management.

Liquidity Solutions

Corporate One strategically manages our liquidity position to ensure credit unions have access to funds when demand increases. We provide cost-effective short- and long-term liquidity options on which credit unions have come to rely.

Card Solutions

Corporate One's card solutions provide powerful, profitable and comprehensive card programs to their members by leveraging the power of aggregated volumes. Our world-class solutions, including both ATM/debit and credit, enable credit unions to maximize revenue, reduce fraud and strengthen relationships with members by offering them best-in-class cardholder benefits.

Investment Solutions

Corporate One maintains a conservative investment portfolio, and offers credit unions a diversified array of investment solutions, including certificates of deposit and overnight investments. Offered by our licensed investment professionals, Corporate One's investment solutions allow credit unions to manage their cash effectively and earn a competitive yield.

Imaging Solutions

Corporate One's cutting-edge imaging technology allows credit unions to better serve members with more efficient internal processing. Our comprehensive solutions are turnkey; enabling credit unions to easily replace existing paper with electronic images for streamlined processing of members' items.

Business Service Solutions

With Corporate One's business service solutions, credit unions can grow revenue, deepen relationships and attract members through innovative new products. Help your local merchants simplify and streamline business-related cash management processes with our convenient, cost-effective solutions.

Strategic Alliances

Integral to the solutions we develop are the alliances we forge to make them possible. At Corporate One, seizing opportunities is all about having the vision to build relationships and create synergies of expertise for the benefit of our members. Proudly, we have several notable affiliations that bear fruit for our members.

Peace Of Mind

With experienced, accredited and licensed personnel, a sound financial position, and a strong business model further strengthened by successful products and services, Corporate One is where credit unions belong.
