Jeremiah Kossen Appointed to Corporate One Federal Credit Union's Board of Directors

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Corporate One Federal Credit Union announced today that Jeremiah Kossen, President/CEO of Publix Employees Federal Credit Union (PEFCU) in Lakeland, Florida, was appointed to the Corporate One Board of Directors. Kossen will fill the unexpired term of former Board member Janice Hollar, who retired from the Board in May 2026. His term began July 8, 2026, and will continue through April 2027.

Kossen has served as President/CEO of PEFCU since 2022 and has been a member of the Corporate One Supervisory Committee since May 2025. Before joining PEFCU, he was President/CEO of Town and Country Credit Union in Minot, North Dakota. He previously served as Chief Operating Officer at Lake Michigan Credit Union in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Earlier in his career, Kossen worked at the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and later served as a Problem Case Officer with the National Credit Union Administration. He also served on the CFPB Credit Union Advisory Council from 2020 to 2022. Kossen holds a Master of Business Administration from Wayne State University and a bachelor's degree from Michigan State University.

Kossen joins Corporate One's Board of Directors alongside Chair Bob Burrow of Bayer Heritage Federal Credit Union, Vice Chair Phil Buell of Superior Credit Union, Treasurer John Shirilla of Best Reward Federal Credit Union, Secretary Bill Allender of BMI Federal Credit Union, John Graham of Expree Credit Union, Daniel Smith of Wright-Patt Credit Union, Daniel Souers of Gulf Winds Credit Union, and Tasha Kostick of 1st Northern California Credit Union.

Corporate One's Board of Directors plays an important role in guiding the organization's strategic vision and leadership direction. The Board is composed of nine directors elected by member credit unions or by general consent, who serve three-year terms. Their leadership helps ensure Corporate One continues to deliver value to its member credit unions.
